

O Jesus, Full of Truth and Grace

Words written by Charles Wesley (1707-88)

Music written by Jonathan D. Smith

A C#m

1) O Je - sus, full of truth and grace, more
 2) You know the way to bring me back, my
 3) The stone to flesh a - gain con - vert, the
 4) Ah! give me, Lord, the ten - der heart that
 5) O Je - sus full of truth and grace, more

D A

full of grace than I of sin, — yet once a - gain I seek your fal - len spi - rit to re - store: O for Your truth and mer - cy's veil of sin a - gain re - move; — Sprin - kleyour blood u - pon my trembles at the approach of sin. — a god - ly fear of sin im -
 full of grace than I of sin, — yet once a - gain I seek Your

C#m D A Fine

face; o - pen Your arms, and take me in, — and sake, for - give and bid me sin no more; — the heart and melt it by your dy - ing love; — this part, im - plant and root it deep with - in, — that face: o - pen Your arms and take me in.

Bm E Bm E

freely my back - sli - dings heal, and love the faith - less sin - ner still.
 ru - ins of my soul re - pair, and make my heart a house of prayer.
 re - bel heart by love sub - due, and make it soft and make it new.
 I may dread your gra - cious power, and ne - ver dare of - fend You more.

D.C. al Fine

2) You
 3) The
 4) Ah!
 5) O